

Walk-Through Consultation

For an hourly fee, I will conduct a visual-only walk-through of the property to discuss any apparent issues. This service does not include a written report. This is a popular option for parties who are not currently under contract, for sellers who are not using the services of real estate professionals, and for property investors who want an idea of the property's general condition.